GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS MILBERN TO COMMISSION FOR THE BLIND

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Stacey Milbern of Fayetteville to the North Carolina Commission for the Blind.

Milbern is a freshman at Methodist College majoring in political science. She is youth committee chair for the Statewide Independent Living Council, a governing board member for the National Youth Legislative Network and chair of the N.C. Youth Council on Disability. Milbern is a 2005 graduate of Massey Hill Classic High School.

The council serves the Division on Services for the Blind in an advisory capacity on issues relating to services for persons with disabilities, especially independent living programs and services. The council also develops and submits a state plan to monitor, review and evaluate such issues and programs. There are 25 members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
